Story Highlights

- Ted's Fish Fry opens seventh location in Milton on November 1.
- New restaurant is chain's first gut renovation, furthest north location.
- Ted's purchased former Pizza Hut for $300,000 in spring 2024.

Ted's Fish Fry is opening it's latest location this week.

The new restaurant at 2103 Doubleday Ave. in Milton is the local chain's first building gut renovation and now its furthest location north, Bill Deeb, vice president of Ted's, said. It's set to open Nov. 1.

The company purchased the former Pizza Hut on Route 50 in the spring of 2024 for $300,000, according to county records. Pioneer provided $400,000 in financing for the purchase and construction.

CG Construction Group worked on the project.

"It's been a fun project, a great learning situation," Deeb said. "I've actually gotten to see my vision of how I want a location to truly look."

The restaurant is about 2,300 square feet with 60-65 seats. Deeb said the business does a 50/50 split on dine-in and takeout service.

Although this will be Ted's furthest north location in the region, it's not the first in Saratoga County. Ted's has a location in Halfmoon as well.

"Rensselaer and Albany County have been great to us. We consider all the employees our family, but it's been nice to kind of venture out into Saratoga County. We always hope to grow outward and our footprint in the Capital District," he said.

Bill Deeb's grandfather, Ted, opened his first fish fry shop in 1949 in Watervliet. Today, the business is run by Bill, his sister, Deanna, and their father, S.K. There are six shops: Latham, Troy, Halfmoon, Watervliet and two in Albany on Wolf Road and Western Avenue. Milton will be the seventh.
